DESCRIPTION

McIntyre & Company are delighted to bring Sealladh an Eilean to the market.

Enjoying an idyllic rural setting in the midst of spectacular West Highland landscapes with dramatic views towards the Small Isles and the Isle of Skye. Kilmory is a relatively secluded setting yet the property is within reach of village amenities.

This is a most impressive superior detached family home that has been carefully designed to take full advantage of the stunning panoramic views. The property has been constructed with a vision of taste and comfort and is finished to an extremely high standard.

The beautiful entrance hall has a picture bay window overlooking the decking and provides access to a sumptuous open plan style kitchen-diner that boasts an Island and a Rangemaster double oven. From the dining area double doors provide access to the decking and neatly kept garden ground. The living room is a delight, one of its features is a 5 kilowatt multifuel stove that sits on a tiled hearth but without doubt the focal point is the full length windows and door that accentuate the wonderful views. There are four well designed bedrooms, two are en-suite and one has double doors leading onto the decking. A wooden staircase leads to a study area, the 4th bedroom and a huge storeroom. The storeroom has great development potential and with the necessary planning permissions could accommodate a further en-suite bedroom and/or games room.

In addition to its beautiful surroundings this fabulous property further benefits from solar panels, South facing windows with solar controlled (Cool-lite) double glazing, zone controlled oil fired underfloor heating to the ground floor with the option to run from an electric boiler, wooden flooring in the living accommodation and hallway, oil fired heating supplemented by a multi fuel stove, and high spec fixtures and fittings throughout.

A beautiful and virtually private beach is a short walk from the cottage and provides a fabulous spot for family fun or to soak up this idyllic landscape.

BT fibre broadband connections were completed in May 2025 and are now fully available under contract in the PH364LG Postcode areas, see details below:

LOCATION/AMENITIES

Kilmory is a small, rural crofting hamlet on the Ardnamurchan Peninsula and is situated just a short walk from the lovely white sandy beach of Kilmory. Kilmory beach is a sheltered cove flanked by rocky promontories and volcanic outcrops that affords some of the finest views towards the Small Isles. It is a great place to immerse yourself in the wilderness of the Ardnamurchan Peninsula and a perfect spot for relaxing, beach combing and bird watching.

Nearby Kilchoan is the most Westerly Village on the Ardnamurchan Peninsula in fact, it is the most westerly point on mainland Britain. Ardnamurchan has some of the most spectacular scenery in Scotland surrounded by rugged mountains, sea lochs, coastlines and sandy beaches as well as an abundance of wildlife with the majestic red deer, golden and white-tailed sea eagles all in the vicinity. The landscape is ideal for hill and coastal walking, with walks to the summit of Ben Hiant which reaches to just 528m the highest point on the peninsula providing superb views. Other places of interest are the beautiful coastline of Sanna Bay and the Ardnamurchan Lighthouse. The Lighthouse is a 19th century listed Lighthouse that towers some 36 metres. For the energetic, you can climb to the top of the tower or visit the Foghorn Engine room. The point provides some spectacular views where Dolphin, Porpoise and Minke Whale are regularly seen. There is free toilets, free parking and a café with gift shop.

Although Kilchoan is a remote setting, there are amenities in the village which include a shop and post office, a Hotel which has a bar and restaurant, a church, a community centre and primary school. Mingarry Castle has an award winning Michelin star restaurant and provides accommodation. There are further amenities and schools in Acharacle approximately 20 miles away.

There are regular sailings to Tobermory on the Isle of Mull which has a Co-operative supermarket, excellent local restaurants and a dentist.

The town of Oban is within reach and offers further amenities and access to the Islands via the ferry terminal. There is a daily bus service that operates between Oban and Fort William.

This diagram (i.e. to include all diagrams shown) is not to scale and is not definitive. The diagram has not been prepared by this firm and is not to be founded upon. This plan is for illustrative purposes and should only be regarded as such by any interested party or prospective purchaser. All measurements have been taken at longest x widest points and are approximate.

Externally

The property sits in approximately 1.2 acres of ground surrounded by an abundance of wildlife, hillside and croftland, mountain scenery and takes in stunning views towards the Isle of Skye, the small isles of Eigg, Muck & Rum and on a really clear day views stretch as far as the Isle of Barra.

A large wrap around garden sweeps the perimeter of the property although there are gates to partition off a secure dog friendly area, a lovely landscape garden and access to part of the decking. Incorporated into the garden is a wildlife pond to the west side of the property.

To the front is a beech hedge that provides gated vehicular access to both ends. The front is predominantly grass with a variety of shrubs and plants. One end of the garden provides access to a large greenhouse.

There is a large shed, an outside tap and an electrical power point. Majority of the land to the west is rough grass whilst the remainder is grass or decking that is neatly kept and staged for outside dining.

The location makes for a great holiday destination and the significant grounds could easily have the potential to generate an income from glamping pods/holiday lodges. It is our understanding that up to three pods can be erected without the needs for any approvals/permissions.
